VARIATIONS

Our website development phase is flexible and allows certain variations to the original specification. However, any major deviation from the specification will be charged at our usual hourly rate of £75 per hour.

The client hires us to use our skills, expertise and experience in website design and build to complete their project. We may also use our own judgement and interpretation of a client's requirements where necessary to maximise commercial and business effectiveness for their business website. Where a project requires additional specialist input or time issues dictate, we will outsource website design and build work as appropriate at no extra charge to the client.

Where the client fails to supply materials, and that prevents the progress of the work, we have the right to invoice you for any part of the work already completed outstanding for payment.

DEADLINES

Completion times are an estimate only, sometimes things may take longer than anticipated due to circumstances outside of our control or where the client delays in getting any agreed content to us in a timely fashion. We strongly recommend the client supplies all content prior to the project start.
